During the armed conflict of a non-international character in Bosnia and Herzegovina between the Army of Republika Srpska on the one hand and the Army of Bosnia and Herzegovina on the other, by violating the rules of international law of the IV Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War of 12 August 1949 and the Protocol Additional to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 relating to the Protection of Victims of Non-International Armed Conflicts (Protocol II), and especially

The accused BB, on the orders of the accused AA, had committed murders and displacement of the civilian population in such a way that on 22 June 1992, knowing that in the hamlets of the villages of Maslovare, Alići and Ekići there remained some Muslim residents and according to a previous agreement, organized and with over 20 other armed persons gathered near the pheasantry in Maslovare, launching an attack on that population. Preceding the attack, AB had been pulled off the tractor and executed on the way to the hamlets. After arriving in the settlement, the group had begun to drive the civilians out of their houses, during which they killed AV and AG, gathering the ensnared population to the house of ....., from where they were led in a column, whereupon the women and children walked in front and the men behind, to the Orthodox cemetery, where the detached men were struck with hands, feet and various objects on all other parts of their bodies, while the wives and children watched and listened. Further, according to the order of AA, the women and children were loaded onto tractors and driven towards the Urije settlement, while the men were taken to the local Muslim cemetery. There AA ordered them to dig a common grave, and then commanded the accused BB and the present VV, GG, DD, ĐĐ, EE and other armed persons known to him and the members of the Territorial Defense to shoot the civilians, and all together, they killed around 24 civilians with firearms, including the following: AD, AĐ, AE, AŽ, AZ, AI, AJ, AK, AL, ALJ, AM, AN, ANJ, AO, AP, AR, AS, AT, AĆ, AU, AF, AH, AC, AČ. They then buried the bodies, so that on an unspecified date in the second half of 1996, the majority of those killed at that time were dug up, proceeding to take the bodies to the confluence of the Japra and Sana Rivers and discarding them. The bodies not found by digging up the graves were then found at the mouth of the Japra River, exhumed and identified in April 2001 as AH, AU, AM, AO, AK and AI. Also, parts of human bones were found identified as belonging to ALj and AD, and the body that was found downstream in the settlement of Jablanica was exhumed and identified as ANj, while the bodies of the others thrown into the river have not been found to this day,
